

We are the Capital of Scotland;

We are a diverse, cosmopolitan city of over 513,000 people and growing;

We are a World Heritage Site, twice over;

We are a Royal Residence;

We are the home of the Scottish Government and Parliament;

We are a seat of learning with 4 universities, the first and most famous of which was founded in 1582 by the Town Council under a royal charter;

We are known for our cultural events and festivals, our Hogmanay celebrations and for our 4.9 million plus per year visitors;

The City and the South East of Scotland powers 24% of the total Scottish economy;

We are also the birthplace of Harry Potter

We are Edinburgh.
